Collect: Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

First Reading: Jonah 3.1-5, 10

The word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time, saying, ‘Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I tell you.’ So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly large city, a three days’ walk across. Jonah began to go into the city, going a day’s walk. And he cried out, ‘Forty days more, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!’ And the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast, and everyone, great and small, put on sackcloth. When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it.

Psalm 145

R: My soul, give praise, give praise to the Lord.

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, it is the Lord who loves the just,
the Lord, who protects the stranger. R

He upholds the widow and orphan,
but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion’s God, from age to age. R

Second Reading: Hebrews 9.24-end

For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgement, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

Even if you have to die, says the Lord,
Keep faithful and I will give you the crown of life.

Alleluia

Gospel Reading: Mark 1:14-20

Communion song: Jesus, the broken.

Post Communion Prayer: God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Recessional: O Mensch Bewein, J.S. Bach.

News and Notices for this week

We welcome to St Margaret's today Reverend Rosemary Potten to preach at the Parish Eucharist this morning. We are grateful for her time and support whilst the parish is in vacancy.

Appointing A New Priest: We are pleased to confirm that we have completed the documents and meetings required to move ahead and advertise for a new priest. The PCC met on Thursday 24 October to approve the "Parish Profile" (our sales brochure to describe to interested candidates all about our congregation and the parish) and to appoint two people to join the Archdeacon and Area Dean on the interview panel. We chose Jannis Abley and Gladstone Rajakulendran to do this. We hope that the advert will appear in November's Church Times and that candidates will be interviewed in February 2025.

Redbridge Citizens: Redbridge Council are consulting the public on their housing and homelessness strategy 2024-2029. Make sure that your voice is heard on this issue before 15 November. Here is the link to complete the survey <https://engage.redbridge.gov.uk/hrss/surveys/homelessness-and-rough-sleeping-survey-individual> Redbridge Citizens are submitting a joint statement and will follow up with further action to hold the council accountable.

PCC Meeting: The next PCC Meeting will take place on Monday 11th of November at 7:30pm in the Church Hall. Minutes and agenda will be circulated by email.

Transform Trade Tea Last Saturday: over 60 people came along to buy Christmas cards and other fairtrade products. There was also lots of chatting with tea and delicious home-made cakes. As well as selling fairtrade products, I have sent £170 to Transform Trade to help them support producers around the world. This would have been very difficult without all the help we received from Jenny, Judith, Anne, Malcolm, Jannis & Peter - thank you very much. Sharon & Kevin Daughters

Christmas Cards & Chocolate: if you haven't already, have a look at the fairtrade stall at the back of church. Thanks Sharon 07555 144255

Tea's Company: The next Tea's Company will be on Thursday 21st November from 2pm to 3.30pm, please come along and bring friends and neighbours for tea, cake and lots of chat. Sharon 07555 144255
